Ronaldo Luiz Nazario da Lima, the famous footballer, was born on 22nd September 1976 in a poor area of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. He and his family lived in a tiny bungalow. Ronaldo didn't have the things most children have, but his great joy in life was football. He often missed school and was usually outside with his friends, with no shoes on, playing football with a rag ball. Ronaldo's mother didn't want him to play football. She believed that there was no future in this for him. She wanted him to go to university and become a clerk. But Ronaldo loved the sport so much that nothing could stop him from playing it. When Ronaldo was 14 years old, a former football player, Jairzinho, discovered him. He realized that he was a very talented player, and two years later Ronaldo played in a Brazilian team, scoring 54 goals in 54 games. Ronaldo was on his way to the top and everyone wanted him on their team. In fact, they thought he was the greatest football player since Pele. Today, Ronaldo is one of the best players in the world and everyone knows his name. He is living proof of a person who turned his dream into a reality.
